Presented by the UNC Charlotte Center for STEM Education, Duke Energy Explorium, CMS & Gaston County Schools

8th Annual STEM Outdoor Catawba River STEM Learning Fair

When: September 28, 2018 9:30 AM – 1:00 PM
Where: The Duke Energy Explorium – Huntersville/Hwy 73
Who: 500+ - 5th Grade students & teachers and STEM educators from the greater Charlotte region

Event: Interactive Learning Stations presented by regional water resource and management businesses, community, educational and governmental agencies coordinated by UNC Charlotte Center for STEM Education.

Belmont Abbey College Elementary Education  Gaston County Natural Resources
NC State Education Forest  Mt. Island  Mecklenburg County Soil & Water District
Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation  Recycling – Recomunity Mecklenburg County
Mecklenburg County Air Quality  WUNC Weather
Mecklenburg County Environmental Health Groundwater  FMC Lithium Corporation
UNC Charlotte Center for STEM Education  Charlotte-Mecklenburg County Storm Water Services
Grease Free Education Program Charlotte Mecklenburg Utilities  Carolina Raptor Center
NC Wildlife Federation  Xylem, Inc.
Charlotte Mecklenburg School Elementary Science  North Carolina Association of Floodplain Managers and more........
framatome

The Catawba River STEM Festival will highlight hands-on learning and engaging activities for 5th grade students focused on the Catawba River and its importance to the greater Charlotte area. STEM (science technology engineering and math) skill development is a key component of career readiness. Hands-On learning opportunities are a proven method of increasing education retention rates and the students love it!